Inês Neves

Multimedia Student

Honor student and passionate about computers, music, and programming. The combination of these passions has shaped my journey, where technology meets creativity. My approach is driven by innovation and a constant quest for improvement, making me a dedicated, hardworking, and organized person. I am convinced that the continuation of learning programming is my path to combine these passions and evolve professionally, as I enjoy myself a lot in this area. I am ready to embark on this learning journey and contribute to the programming field, both Frontend and Backend!
